01:13:28 Maria Gonzalez Pendas: NAY: I oppose the resolution on similar terms of overtly generalized and vague language and lack of evidence either in my department or in the presentation of the resolution. This resolution appears less as a reminder and more as warning and lack of trust in faculty who teach and care for politics in both broad and specific terms.
(Architecture Dept)

01:17:39 Keith Obadike: Nay. I oppose the resolution. The nature and the contours of political speech will vary department by department. I don't think we need a resolution to remind us to be considerate of our students and colleagues.

01:19:09 Iris Packman: I also oppose this because it is vague, and because engaging in "political" discussions, especially as we enter an unprecedented era in American politics, is a key part of academic discourse. Our students will experience serious impacts in many areas of their lives as a result of the Trump administration, and we would be remiss to stifle discussion or acknowledgment of these real impacts.

02:14:55 Mark Lewis (he/him/his): Be it further resolved, that the Cornell Faculty Senate demands that Vice President Malina issue a public apology for his statements in violation of faculty academic freedom that he made at the September 30, 2024 Hillel parents meeting or face a Faculty Senate vote on the censure of Vice President Malina,

Be it further resolved that the Faculty Senate demands that the Cornell administration shall publicly reject Vice President Malina's statements violating academic freedom;

Be it further resolved, that the Cornell Faculty Senate demands that the Cornell administration publicly commit that Cornell will not engage in any form of surveillance of faculty teaching;

Be it further resolved, that the Faculty Senate demands that the Cornell administration will provide public information about its plans for increased police and security presence and increased numbers and placement of security cameras on campus;

02:27:14 Allison Chatrchyan, Cornell: I support this resolution, and those that have spoken in favor of it. In addition, President Kotlikoff's scrutiny of a course is extremely problematic

02:30:28 Mark Lewis (he/him/his): I was going to say that there is nothing saying that VP Malina cannot come to the Senate and apologize AND further explain.
