

Charge

1. The role of the Cornell Faculty Advisory Committee on Athletics and Physical Education is to provide advice on how the programs of the Department of Athletics and Physical Education can best complement and support the overall educational objectives of the University.
2. The committee will consult with the Athletic Director and/or their designee regarding how to assure an intercollegiate, physical education, intramural, and recreational program of the highest quality. In doing so, the Committee will become familiar with and provide counsel regarding the following matters:
 - a. Areas of continuing interest to Cornell and the Department, including admissions, academic performance of student athletes, and the overall programs, goals, and objectives of the Department.
 - b. Issues facing the NCAA, ECAC, Ivy League, and other sport specific governing bodies.
 - c. Schedules for fall, winter, and spring seasons for each team and the guidelines for leaves and absences for intercollegiate teams.
 - d. The physical education and swim requirement for students.
3. The committee chair will:
 - a. Review the competition schedules for all varsity athletic teams each year and approve requested missed class time in accordance with the FACAPE Missed Class Time Policy.
 - b. Grant approval from the Athletic Director designee on revisions to approved missed class time sheets on a case-by-case basis.
 - c. Hear and decide on student appeals regarding the physical education and/or swim graduation requirements, brought forth by the Director of Physical Education. Consultation and vote with the greater committee will be pursued for more complex cases, as needed.
 - d. Conduct committee meetings, maintain committee records, and write an annual report.
4. The committee will support Cornell student-athlete academic success by:
 - a. Serving as a resource for Cornell Student-Athlete Support Services (SASS).
 - b. Fostering a strong system of team faculty liaisons for all varsity athletic teams in partnership with Cornell SASS.
 - c. Regularly reviewing and revising the FACAPE Missed Class Time Policy to ensure its alignment with current academic and athletic expectations.
 - d. Providing guidance to Cornell faculty and SASS on best practices for providing accommodations to varsity student-athletes for missed class time and/or assessments.

- e. Provide oversight to cases of academic misconduct pertaining to athletic eligibility including an independent review of academic coursework on a case-by-case basis, as needed.
