Thank You

Recognition Card for Eve

Eve, you've been a voice for calm and compassion since the day you took the job. I am tremendously grateful that you agreed to serve. It was a very tough period, and you guided us with an unerring and inclusive vision that centered on hearing all points of view. This model is one we needed, and will need into the future. THANK YOU!!!

Eve, thanks for all your support, advocacy, and hardwork, on behalf of the faculty!

Eve,
It has been such a pleasure working with you over the last 3 years. You have done an awesome job as Dean of Faculty! I will miss you.

Many thanks for your leadership during my term as a Faculty Senator.

Eve, thank you for your incredible service as Dean of Faculty. Your welcoming attitude, your encouraging words, and your insistence that everybody should take part in the shared governance of the university were an incredible gift to many of us, and a model that I sincerely hope your successor will choose to adopt.

Dear Eve,
Thank you for your dedicated work as Dean of the Faculty. It was a pleasure working with you in CAPE. Your commitment to Cornell and our faculty, staff and students was outstanding. Enjoy your return to the full-time faculty.

Your calm stewardship during a turbulent time have kept things on the rails. We all appreciate it!

Thank you so much for your thoughtful leadership as Dean of Faculty. You welcomed me as a new RTE senator, navigated tensions with calm and grace, and made everyone's voices matter. You will be missed!

Eve, Thanks for stepping up and serving the faculty in difficult times. Your commitment was evident in everything you did. You calm helped your colleagues immensely. I hope you take a well deserved break.

Thanks for all of your work, especially during such difficult times over the past few years.
